Ämne: ARRL On-Line Auction Preview Now

This year the 12th Annual ARRL On-Line Auction will run from October 20th through October 26th, with the preview starting October 18th, and has over 250 items up for bid.

The 2017 auction includes QST "Product Review" gear (already ARRL Lab-tested!), vintage books, pre-owned gear, one-of-a-kind finds, and the ARRL Lab team has contributed four, of the very popular, "mystery boxes."

Some of the premier items up for bid from the QST "Product Review" inventory include the Flex Radio Systems Flex-6500 SDR Transceiver and Updated SmartSDR for Windows Software, Elecraft KX2 HF QRP Transceiver, Kenwood TH-D74A Analog and D-Star VHF/UHF Transceiver and Yaesu FT-891 HF and 6-Meter Transceiver.

Among the book offerings are The World of Ham Radio 1901-1950, a special defense edition of The Radio Amateur's Handbook from 1942 and Fundamental of SSB by Collins.

Proceeds from the yearly On-Line Auction benefit ARRL education programs. These include activities to license new hams, strengthen Amateur Radio Emergency Service training, offer continuing technical and operating education, and create instructional materials.

All bidders need to register. Please note that your arrl.org User ID and password will not work on this site. If you have previously registered you may use the same log-in information. If you have forgotten, simply click the "Help" tab and you'll find instructions as to how to retrieve your password or User ID. Please also take this opportunity to make sure we have your updated address and other information if you plan to bid and the auction site only accepts Visa and MasterCard.
